V. ITEMS OF BUSINESS

A. AM No. 07-102: AUTHORIZING THE MANAGER TO ENTER INTO NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE UPPER SUSITNA VALLEY SENIOR CENTER AND ENTER AN AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE A TEMPORARY LOCATION FOR SU VALLEY JUNIOR/SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL.

Mr. Duffy:

- advised that AM No. 07-102 is based on the School Board's and School District's recommendations;
- noted that the approval of the legislation will authorize the Borough to enter into negotiations with the Upper Susitna Senior Center; and
- stated that the Borough will not be able to appropriate funds until the insurance funds are identified.

Ms. Clayton:

- spoke regarding entering negotiations with the Upper Susitna Senior Center to provide a location for the students from Susitna Valley High School;
- stated that her understanding is that the School District has all of the portables that are needed; and
- spoke regarding the potential funding sources for the temporary relocation of Susitna Valley High School students.

Assemblymember Kluberton queried whether the phrase "cheapest acceptable" could be included in the negotiations.

Mr. Duffy advised that the advocate for the Borough would take this issue to the negotiations table.

Ms. Clayton:

- noted that the advocate does not believe it is reasonable to bus the students 50 miles;
- spoke to the potential funding sources;
- advised that a declaration of emergency has been forwarded to Governor Sarah Palin;
- advised that the insurance adjustor has done a site visit with Borough and School District officials;
- noted that the insurance adjustor will be looking to see if there is anything salvageable;
- commented that the Borough has not received anything in writing on the items that will be covered; and
- stated that the Borough is hoping to receive advanced funds from the insurance company for the contents of the building.

Assemblymember Church queried if "contents" would include items that personally belonged to the teachers.

Ms. Clayton advised that she would have to find out whether teachers belongings would be covered under the policy.

Discussion ensued regarding:

- the portables needed for the temporary location; and
- School District funds that lapse back to the Borough.

MOTION: Assemblymember Kluberton moved to approve AM No. 07-102.
